

Chimi Return Form

Consumers have the right to return the product within 14 days from receiving the order. The right applies only in case that the product and its original packaging can be returned in the same condition as when received. Return shipping is paid by the consumer, 49 SEK (approximately 5 €)

Use the return label that comes with your order. We recommend you to keep your shipping receipt until you have received your refund. Make sure to fill in this return form and place it together with you sunglasses you wish to return.

The refunded amount will be payed out from us directly when we have received the product. Please note that the return fee will be extracted from the returned amount of your sunglasses. The amount will be visible at your payment method within a few business days.
